Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes the drum to vibrate, or it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Take Hall's Family Pill for constipation.

After a man has taken out an accident insurance policy he will think it a waste of money if nothing happens to him.

Can You Eat?

J. R. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I cannot eat because of my weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by D. C. Bowman, druggist.

The majority of our mistakes would never be noticed if we did not call attention to them.

One of Many.

H. A. Tisdale, of Sumner, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the Piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good were found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ring worm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by D. C. Bowman, druggist.

It's far better to be bent on economy than broke on extravagance.

THE STATUE OF LEE.

By Miss Nannie Byrd Turner.

She was born in Boydton, Mecklenburg county, in 1880, and began publishing her poems, which have appeared at various times since, in the Atlantic Monthly, Munsey, the Smart Set and other magazines, during the summer of 1902, when she was just twenty-two years old.

This is Lee, sleeping—how the head— Here, in this shadowy, sheltered place, Looking upon that life-like face.

The heart will cry: "He is not dead!" Whatever lonely years have said, They spoke with cruel, lying breath, Not cold, not far, the dead are dead, Surely, if this be death!

Just so he lay a thousand nights, When tarried weary, toll and march, And under heaven's brooding arch, Flickered the camp fire's searing light; When day's dread toll of sounds and sights Had dimmed to dreams and he who kept In his deep heart a people's trust, Faced the far skies and slept.

Almost, we think, he would be stirred, Now, if there thrilled the trumpet's cry, Or bugle-sound or reveille, Broke silence with their silver word: Almost, we fancy, could be heard The old commanding voice's ring, And music beat of martial feet, Answering following.

But even on our mortal ears, Fall faintly now the battle noise, He hears no echo in the skies, Or only as an angel hears, For all the days, of all the years, His spirit, past the din of wars, Has compassed peace we know not of, Somewhere beyond the stars.

He has gone forward to the host, Who tell beneath the starry swing, Of the fair banner's shadowed front, Counting their eager lives well lost— The comrade soldier souls that crossed The river first, their battle won; From strife, distress and bitterness, Saved gathered to his own.

The fiery cause he loved and led, The hope that drew him up and on— That old, brave way that great have gone Since the first warrior smiled and bled— The dream that grayed reality, Faded and faded on a day; And yonder God has told him why Forever and for aye.

Dead and yet deathless! Changed, but still Immortal in his people's hearts; Cherished in all the wondrous parts Life called him wondrously to fill: Patriot, brother, leader, true, He sounded the best drum's truest beat; Then safe for fame his glorious name— Three victor in defeat!

So rests he here while rise and fall, The city's noises muffled dim; A fitting rest for him— In his loved nation's capital; Safe sheltered in our midst, where all May look, may reverence year by year; Say—truly said—he is not dead! This is Lee sleeping here!
